Subject: Disposal of Personal Property

Prior to our garage cleaning during the period April 13-15, 2009, residents were requested to remove all personal items from their garage parking spaces to facilitate cleaning.

While many residents complied with the request, some did not and it was necessary to store your possessions in a secure location.

This notice is the first of two reminding you that should you wish to take back your personal property; you may contact the Concierge in your condominium to arrange for its return within thirty days of today's date.

Please note that when you collect your personal property, it may not be stored in the underground parking garage. Kindly collect your property and place it within your lockers.

We thank you in advance for your early attention to this matter.

Yours truly,

Brookfield Residential Services Ltd.
