

The City of Toronto holds public consultations as one way to engage residents in the life of their city. Toronto thrives on your great ideas and actions. We invite you to get involved.

Proposed New Street between Queens Quay West and Harbour Street

Part of Gardiner Expressway York-Bay-Yonge Interchange Reconfiguration Environmental Assessment

We invite you to attend a Public Open House to learn more about and provide feedback on the potential addition of a local street from Harbour Street to Queens Quay between York Street and Bay Street. The analysis of alternative design options for the local street will be available for review and comment.

Details are as follows:

Date: Monday, April 4, 2011
Time: 5:30 p.m. to 7:30 p.m.
Location: PawsWay
Pet Discovery Centre
245 Queens Quay West

Background

The City of Toronto is undertaking a Municipal Class Environmental Assessment study to evaluate the feasibility of reconfiguring the Gardiner Expressway's York, Bay and Yonge interchange and adding a local street from Harbour Street to Queens Quay between York Street and Bay Street. The purpose of any change will be to improve the public realm within the central waterfront area while maintaining acceptable traffic conditions.

Information will be collected in accordance with the Municipal Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act. With the exception of personal information, all comments will become part of the public record.

We would like to hear from you

Public consultation is an important part of this study. If you would like more information, or would like to be kept informed about this project, please contact:
